

ASSOCIATE/SENIOR PLANNER

City of Dublin, California

Associate Planner: $8,733 - $10,918 per month

Senior Planner: $9,952 - $12,441 per month

EXCELLENT BENEFIT PACKAGE

The City of Dublin, a dynamic and diverse community, is seeking one Associate/Senior Planner to perform professional-level urban planning functions. Under general direction, the Associate/Senior Planner coordinates and manages planning and development projects and provides technical assistance to the Planning Division of the City's Community Development Department. This position provides an excellent career opportunity for obtaining a broad range of experience involving management of Advanced and Current Planning projects. The Associate Planner position is distinguished from the Senior Planner in that the Senior Planner performs more complex planning functions and may perform supervisory authority over assigned staff, including directing and training. Candidates will be considered at the Associate or Senior level, depending on candidates' qualifications and performance during the selection process.

This position requires a Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university with major course work in planning or a closely related field. A Master's degree is preferred. The Associate Planner position requires a minimum of two years of professional experience in the field of city or regional planning, including project management. While the Senior Planner position requires a minimum of five years of progressively responsible professional experience in the field of city or regional planning, including complex project management and lead or supervisory experience.
