

CITY OF SIMI VALLEY

SENIOR ENGINEER

City of Simi Valley, California

104,141.00 - 133,926.00 annually
plus excellent benefits.

Under direction, supervises, assigns, reviews and participates in the work of staff responsible for performing professional and technical engineering services; ensures work quality and adherence to established policies and procedures; provides specialized engineering services; and performs the more technical and complex tasks relative to assigned area of responsibility. This is a broad classification with individual positions assigned to specific functional areas; duties and assignments may overlap depending on the operational needs of the department and staffing levels.

Ideal Candidate: Possess the knowledge and understanding of the principles, practices, and methods of civil engineering as applied to planning, designing, and construction of various public water facilities. The skills and ability to direct and supervise the work of engineers and support staff. Excellent communicator including presentations at City Councils, Planning Commissions, Neighborhood Organizations, etc. Preparing and presenting staff reports and other correspondence to a variety of councils, commissions and committees, boards, and neighborhood organizations. Participated in local and regional agencies such as Water agencies, Municipal Water Districts, Counties, Regional Water Quality Control Boards, and Water Management Committees. Possession of registration as a professional engineer in the State of California. Proficient in the latest version of AutoCAD is highly desirable

This recruitment is open until filled. The first review of applications will occur on 11/03/2023, or when 25 applications have been received. This recruitment may close at any time. Candidates who possess the best combination of qualifications will be invited by e-mail to the next steps in our process. Apply online at www.SimiValley.org/careers