

ENGINEERING TECHNICIAN

City of Diamond Bar, CA

$5,005 - $6,707/month

The City of Diamond Bar is seeking a highly motivated and experienced individual with strong interpersonal skills to perform technical work for the Engineering division of the Public Works Department. Under general supervision, performs public service and technical work at the public counter; responds to requests for documents and information; performs responsible sub-professional engineering work in either the office or the field; drafts various public works projects and maps, makes engineering computations and does routine design work; performs inspections; issues and tracks encroachment permits; and performs related duties as assigned.

Education: Graduation from high school supplemented by college level courses in civil engineering or closely related field. Experience: 1. At least two years of experience, including the performance of sub-professional civil engineering, permitting and project coordination, or other related public works and engineering experience. 2. Experience with a local government agency is highly desirable. License and/or Certificates: Must possess and maintain a valid class C California driver's license and an acceptable driving record throughout employment.

To view a detailed job announcement and to apply online, please visit www.diamondbarca.gov. Apply by February 25, 2024.