

NETWORK SYSTEM ANALYST II

County of Nevada, CA

$86,090 - $105,098 annually

The County of Nevada, California seeks qualified individual to help support our enterprise vision of excellent community services by implementing and maintaining dependable, stable, and secure systems. Our infrastructure spans multiple locations, supporting primary and backup data centers, and cloud hosting environments.

Minimum requirements include two years of college-level work in information systems, computer science, or related field; or two years of college-level work in any subject and two years of technical work experience; or five years of directly related technical computer services work experience, with two years of relevant experience performing work equivalent to Nevada County's classification of Network System Analyst I.

Final filing date: 7/26/24. For full details and to apply, please visit <https://nevadacountyca.gov/> (click "County Careers"), or call 530-265-7010 for general information.