

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS MANAGER

City of Lakewood

Lakewood, California

$8,658 - $10,524 per month

plus benefits

Under general direction of the Director of Public Safety, plans, organizes, administers and coordinates the City-wide Emergency Management Program for the preparedness, response and recovery phases for local disasters, emergencies and national security emergencies, including environmental alerts or issues; plans, develops and executes public education and community outreach programs and training on emergency preparedness; and performs related duties as required.

Requires a Bachelor's degree in emergency management, public policy, public or business administration, criminal justice, or a closely related field. Four years of professional experience in emergency management, emergency preparedness, and/or emergency response programs and at least one year of supervisory experience. Must possess a valid California Class C driver's license issued by the State Department of Motor Vehicles and good driving record. FEMA Certification in ICS-100, ICS-200, ICS-700, ICS-800 training is required. FEMA Certification in ICS-300, ICS-400, G-191 and G-775 are highly desirable. Completion of Basic CERT training, CERT Train-the-Trainer and CERT program manager certification is highly desirable. Certification as an Emergency Manager by the International Association of Emergency Managers is highly desirable.

APPLY BY: Friday, June 27, 2025 at 2:00 p.m. Applicants must submit a completed City application. Resumes will not be accepted in lieu of City application. For more information and to apply, visit the City of Lakewood website at www.lakewoodca.gov/jobs.